1. On 24 October 1953, the Schuetzen Kaserne in Eberswalde was almost occupied to capacity by about 3,500 troops including 100 recruits and a headquarters of about 500 troops. [REDACTED] the officers' club on 17 October. Bernauer Beer House was blocked by sentries. On 21 October, troops in the Schuetzen Kaserne filled mattresses and about 30 to 40 soldiers engaged in maintenance duty near the armory. Three radio trucks were parked near the armory. The noise of troops at work was heard from the armory and the garages.

2. On 24 October, the Artillerie Kaserne was occupied to capacity by about 3,700 troops. On 22 October, a 120-mm mortar entered the eastern section of the installation. About 120 soldiers were seen in the billeting area. The noise of troops at work was heard from the yard and the garages.

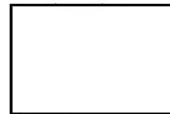

3. On 24 October, the cantonment on Breitscheid Strasse was occupied by about 500 troops. On 23 October, [REDACTED] 50 soldiers engaged in maintenance work and about 70 soldiers including 50 recruits did close-order drill in the barracks yard. The shed was being enlarged for the housing of motor vehicles.

4. At about 9 a.m. on 21 October, a train of about 30 boxcars with about 1,000 troops wearing black-bordered crimson epaulets, and two boxcars with officers wearing red-bordered black epaulets and 4 other boxcars carrying HQs and HM was seen en route toward Eberswalde from the direction of Bad Freienwalde [REDACTED]. At about 4 p.m. on 21 October a train of 18 boxcars carrying about 1,000 troops wearing red-bordered black epaulets drove in the other direction. At about 10 a.m. on 23 October, a train of 23 boxcars with about 900 troops wearing black-bordered crimson epaulets, 22 boxcars with about 850 troops (apparently recruits), wearing red-bordered black epaulets, 6 boxcars with field kitchens and 4 boxcars with escorting personnel drove toward Eberswalde from the direction of Bad Freienwalde. At about 11 a.m. on 24 October, a train of 12 boxcars with about 300 troops wearing black-bordered crimson epaulets was en route in the same direction. 2

2. [redacted] Comment. These shipments are believed to have been connected with the personnel exchange movements of the French Gds Mezz Army and the processing center in Bad Freienwalde and carried recruits as well as discharges. The train en route toward Eberswalde on 21 October probably carried recruits who were subsequently unloaded in Eberswalde.
